CRESCENT CITY

The primary election on Tuesday passed off quietly, a light vote being polled because of the heavy rain during most of the afternoon. Considerable interest was manifested because of the known fight against the local senatorial candidate and candidate for county commissioner. The vote of senatorial candidates was: Conway 53, Russell 92. For county commissioner: Blanchard had 71 and Gautier 76. The opposition to the local candidates was particularly bitter and participated in by some of our most influential citizens, but the opposition was due solely to differences in local political and business matters. Our local senatorial candidate has carried the county by almost a 2-to-1 vote.

The Chamber of Commerce held its regular meeting on Monday night with only a fair attendance because of the rain.

There will be a demonstration of the Fordson tractor at the Clifford Hunter farm next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All who would enjoy seeing some modern farm work are invited.

Miss Helen Tillman entertained a large number of ladies at a card party last Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fuller and Miss Belle Fuller spent several days last week in St. Augustine, returning home on Monday.

The ladies of the Park Improvement or Park Playground Association served refreshments in the pavilion last Tuesday, and did a very good business in spite of the rain.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hale and Mrs. Rich will leave for Denver, Colo., the latter part of this week. Mrs. Hale and children, with Mrs. Rich, expect to spend the coming year in that city. Mr. Hale, of course, will return in the fall to look after the marketing of his big citrus crop.

—Rev. W. L. Atkinson returned last week from Des Moines, Iowa, where he attended the general assembly of the Presbyterian church as a delegate from Florida. Mr. Atkinson visited his old home in Springfield, Mo., after the meeting of the assembly, and enjoyed a fine reunion visit with old friends and relatives.

Professor J. S. Wheatly visited Crescent City on election day to cast his vote, paying his way from Jacksonville like a patriot who would serve his country in peace as well as in war. Mr. Wheatly cast his vote and returned on the noon train Tuesday.

The V. I. A. will hold its regular monthly meeting next Monday afternoon, the 12th instant, at 4 o'clock. All members are expected to answer roll call with a quotation.

Rev. R. T. Chafer has been mailing this week a quantity of very attractive literature in the interest of the proposed Scofield Memorial chapel. This printed matter is being sent to all those who have attended the Bible conference during the last five years and to a large selected list of people who were personal friends of the late Dr. Scofield as well as a list of the friends of the trustees, including some of the leaders of the nation-wide Bible conference movement which during the last ten years has grown to vast proportions. For a number of years Crescent City was the winner in Florida in this movement, but now it is only one of several centers where an annual Bible conference is held, principal among which are Miami, Lakeland and St.

Petersburg, all of which, because of their splendid entertainment facilities, drew a large attendance each year. In this movement for a new auditorium which will at once afford a Crescent City memorial to one of her honored winter citizens and an adequate accommodation for the future meetings of the conference, no money is asked for. The literature simply announces the opportunity for those who are interested to contribute according to the individual interest. No call will be made for payment of the subscriptions until sufficient funds are pledged to finance the project. No attempt has been made to circularize the town of Crescent City as a whole. However, several people have already indicated their desire to contribute to the fund and if anyone who does not see the literature wishes to have part in this memorial a line dropped to Mr. Chafer will at once procure the circular matter and subscription blank.

Contractor Banks, of Palatka, began the work of erecting the new People's Bank building here last Monday. A large force of workmen are on the job and this handsome two-story brick structure will be completed and ready for occupancy early in the fall.

The musicale given last Friday afternoon by the pupils of Miss Alice

Hutchinson at Mrs. Cheatham's charming home, was a very interesting and pleasing affair. The young folks acquitted themselves most creditably and showed decided progress in their work. Refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served during the social hour following program: "The Three Jolly Hunters" (Cremien), Louise Wilson; "Rose Petals" (Lawson), Elnor Smoak; "Darling Heart" (Weidig), Catherine Crotty; "Little Rogue" (Hoffman), George Crotty; "On the Mountain" (Lege), Oreta Moore; "Coquette" (MacDonald), Mary Kinard; "Curious Story" (Heller), Frances Jordan; "Autumn Frolics" (Mueller), Alice Cliff; "The Brier Rose" (Fischer), Edith Cliff; "On the Meadow" (Lichner), Marjorie Hale; "Poet and Peasant" (Suppe-Tonelli), Harry Hale; "Song Without Words" (Saint-Saens), Elizabeth Crotty; "Nocturne" (Brazin), Elizabeth Jordan; "La Priesea" (Merz), Miss Hutchinson, Elizabeth Crotty.

INTERLACHEN.

Daniels-Gillett Marriage Solemnized.

The Congregational church was the scene of a very pretty wedding Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, when Miss Ethel Gillett became the bride of Mr. Edgar M. Daniels, with Rev. Samuel Bailey Ross as officiating minister.

A lofty canopy of feathery bamboo, palms and ferns, with a bank of the same beautiful greenery, furnished the setting for the bridal party, who entered the church to the strains of the Mendelssohn Wedding March, played by Mrs. Ross.

The groom was attended by Messrs. William B. Thompson and Fred Steele, cousins of Miss Gillett. The bride's attendants were her sister, Miss Ruth Gillett, and cousin, Mrs. Ethel Steele. The dark-eyed little bride was radiant in her gown of filmy white, white picture hat, and shower bouquet of white roses and peonies. Miss Ruth Gillett wore flame color over white satin, with hat to match, and carried Black-eyed Susans. Mrs. Steele was gowned in orchid georgette, with picture hat, and bouquet of blue hydrangeas.

The bride was presented for marriage by her brother, Edward Gillett, and the beautifully simple ring ceremony was used by the pastor.

After a brief interval for congratulations, the wedding party were seated in the congregation, and remained for the morning service.

After a dinner at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniels left for Jacksonville, and on their return later in the week will be at home to their friends at Villa Donna Major, the lovely cottage home of Mrs. A. Weber.

Mrs. F. B. Hester was hostess Friday afternoon at a charming party and household shower for Miss Ethel Gillett, at the hall, with Mrs. Annie Jones as her able assistant. The hall was tastefully decorated with bamboo, Black-Eyed Susans and nasturtiums. Several clever contests had been arranged for the entertainment of the guests and afforded much amusement. Fruit punch and wafers were served, and then the stage curtain was rolled up, displaying the beautifully decorated table, piled high with household wares for every conceivable use. Later the "bride's cake" was brought forth—each guest following Miss Gillett's example in cutting a slice, and the wee favors therein occasioned great merriment.

Great interest was manifested in the primary election in this precinct Tuesday, a large vote being polled, despite the fact that half the day was rainy. The women voters were noticeably faithful to their privilege of having a voice in political affairs in our state.

Last week was a period marked by unusually frequent and severe electric storms in this section, with very heavy rains. In one of the storms the fence around the Lake View was struck by lightning; in another a nearby farmer, William Vause, had taken shelter with his horse under a shed, and a bolt of lightning struck, killing the horse and rendering Mr. Vause unconscious for a time. No damage to buildings has been reported, but the heavy rains have sought out every leaky spot in the roofs, and much repair work is going on.

Messrs. Ed. Gillett, William Thompson, Fred and Mrs. Steele, who were here from Jacksonville to attend Miss Gillett's wedding, returned Sunday evening to Jacksonville in Mr. Gillett's car.

Mrs. Voigt and infant, who have been with Mrs. Olsen at Mariners' Lake, are now in Savannah.

Mr. Robert Long left a few days ago for medical treatment in a Lake City hospital, and was accompanied to Jacksonville by Mrs. Long.

Francis Smith, of Ocala, was here on business Sunday and Monday.

Chats With You Gas Man

An employee of this company, who, upon hearing any criticism of the service, promptly reports the complaint, the name and address of the customer, does three valuable things:

He provides relief for the customer, making it possible to knowledge of local conditions, to remove the cause of the complaint.

He gives this company the opportunity to investigate and remedy the conditions complained of.

He has the satisfaction of knowing that he has helped the customer and this company.

We want our customers to know that we are constantly pressing these facts upon our employees, to the end that they may receive prompt and courteous attention.

A satisfied customer is the most valuable asset this company can hope to have. Any employee who fails to recognize this fundamental fact does not rightly represent this company and its policies.

Joint Accounts

A husband and wife or others whose interests are in common, often find it convenient to have a "joint" account. Such an account is opened in two names, and is payable to either person. In case of death of one, the account is held subject to the order of the survivor without the necessity of any legal formality. We will be glad to give further information to those interested in the subject of a joint account.

How Ironized Yeast

Makes Huskies out of thin, nervous run-down men—

"Gains 10 Pounds"
"I have taken only 1 1/2 packages of IRONIZED YEAST, yet have gained 10 lbs."
—Rev. L. W. V.
"Gains 8 Pounds"
"After one box of IRONIZED YEAST I have gained 8 lbs. and my skin is clear."
—Mr. A. G. B.
"Gains 10 Pounds"
"I have gained 10 lbs. in 15 days."
—Mrs. J. K. H.
"Gains 7 Pounds"
"To my surprise I have gained 7 lbs. in two weeks."
—Miss M. G. W.

Everyone has heard of the seeming "miracles" performed by yeast. And now Science announces the discovery of a process which enables yeast to build weight, increase energy and clear the skin often in just half the usual time! This is known as the process of ironization. It is embodied only in IRONIZED YEAST, which millions are now taking with splendid results.
